

We invite you to take part in a unique interdisciplinary, monthly workshop focusing on Africa- hosted by the Harry S. Truman Research Institute for the Advancement of Peace at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem!

The workshop provides a platform for over 70 scholars from different fields to meet and explore their research and sessions include scholarly discussions of issues such as agriculture, history, migration, nationalism, economic development and more. Africounters group invites everyone who has a keen scholarly interest in Africa to join us for the coming academic year and to decide on days and dates for future sessions.

The first meeting will take place on Sunday the 22nd of October, between 11:00-14:00 at Abba Eban Hall, Truman Institute at Mount Scopus Campus, Jerusalem.

The first meeting we will have guest speaker Professor Lynn Schler, director of the African Center at the Ben Gurion University who will share her experiences as an Africanist in the Israeli Academia with us. The meeting will also provide an opportunity for us to discuss and decide together on the vision for this academic year.

Participation is free of charge and refreshments will be provided.

Those who require a car pass, please contact us a few days in advance with your license plate number.

You are invited to contact us by email at africounters@gmail.com, and join us on our facebook group: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/1147093972012140/>

Looking forward to welcoming you to Africounters!
